About Our Year in Bali

Hi, I'm Simone — founder of Our Year in Bali.

Like many families, we were seeking a lifestyle shift: less stress, more quality time, and a fresh perspective.

So we packed up our life in Sydney and set off for what was meant to be a one-year adventure in Bali.

What we found was far more than a tropical getaway.

We discovered a sense of community, calm, and deeper connection — and ended up calling Bali home for two unforgettable years.

Of course, the journey wasn't without its challenges.

We spent a full year preparing—researching, budgeting, even taking a scout trip to Bali—and still made our fair share of mistakes.

That's when it hit me: how much easier this could be with the right guidance.

That's why I created Our Year in Bali. Since 2018, I've supported hundreds of individuals and families from over 55 countries in relocating with greater ease and confidence.

If you're considering a move to Bali, I'd love to help you make it happen—without the guesswork—and connect you with the right people and resources that truly make a difference.

What no one tells you

Moving to Bali is exciting — but let's be real, it can also feel overwhelming.

You might spend hundreds of hours researching, reading blogs, scrolling through endless Facebook group threads where everyone has a different opinion... maybe even following an influencer or bingeing a YouTube channel for answers.

And still, you're left wondering: Where do I even start? Who can I actually trust?

We get it — we've been there too.

We Tell the Whole Story

At Our Year in Bali, we share it all — the magical moments and the things no one talks about.

Relocating takes planning, and there's a sea of conflicting information out there. It's easy to feel unsure, overwhelmed, or stuck wondering, "What am I missing?"

That's where we come in. Our role is to help you cut through the noise, sidestep common mistakes, and feel confident about your move.

Support That Fits Your Journey

Every relocation story is different. That's why we offer three tailored Support Packages — designed to meet you where you are.
